Course Title: English 9 College Preparatory

Course Number: 00009

Course Prerequisites: Successful completion of the Middle Level Curricula

Course Description:
This course is intended for college bound students and is designed to prepare students for post-secondary education. This course provides instruction in the reading of fiction and nonfiction texts with a focus on genres, themes, character development, and devices to give each student a foundation for critical reading in future academic courses. Students will write effectively and with a purpose appropriate to their audience, while incorporating the essential types of writing – narrative, informative, and argumentative. Students will establish a mastery of language conventions and mechanics. With a focus on post-secondary education readiness, the class will aid students in developing a command of general, academic, and domain-specific vocabulary. Through various discussions and a required formal speech, students will be proficient public speakers. Using the Pennsylvania Common Core Standards as a guide, the course will prepare students for the state standardized assessments.
