PLANNED INSTRUCTION

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Course Title: English 10 CP
Course Number: 00012
Course Prerequisites: Successful completion of English 9 course

Course Description: This course is intended for college bound students and is designed to prepare students for post-secondary education and continues to build upon skills acquired in College Preparatory English 9. This course provides instruction in the reading of fiction and nonfiction texts with a focus on genres, universal themes, character development, and literary devices to give each student a foundation for critical reading in future academic courses. Students will write effectively and with a purpose appropriate to their audience, while incorporating the essential types of writing –constructed responses, informative, argumentative and critical analysis. Composition skills will be further expanded with students reading and responding to a wide variety of texts. Students will establish a mastery of language conventions and mechanics. With a focus on post-secondary education readiness, the class will aid students in developing a command of general, academic, and domain-specific vocabulary. Through various discussions and a required formal speech, students will be proficient public speakers. Using the Pennsylvania Common Core Standards as a guide, the course will prepare students for the state standardized assessments.
